

9th Student Safety Technology Design Competition 2023

27th International Technical Conference on the Enhanced Safety of Vehicles

April 3-6, 2023, Yokohama, Japan

Be a part of the growing excitement

GET INVOLVED TODAY!

JOIN US!

- A contest for students as part of the Enhanced Safety of Vehicle's Conference
- Teams of students and faculty develop models or mockups of new safety systems
- Top 3 teams present at ESV in Yokohama, Japan

HOW DO I ENTER?

- Create a team with 2-5 undergrad/grad students and a faculty advisor
- Produce an idea for one of the categories listed at <http://www-esv.nhtsa.dot.gov/>
- Email your abstract to SSTDC@dot.gov by May 20, 2022

CATEGORIES:

- Automated Driving Systems
- Electric Vehicle Safety
- Vision Systems
- Crash Compatibility
- Restraint System Enhancement
- Dummy Design and Instrumentation
- Post Crash Safety
- See more categories online

WHY SHOULD I ENTER?

- U.S. teams with accepted abstracts receive $3000
- This is an opportunity to show the industry your talents, and showcase your safety ideas
- Top 3 teams receive international recognition, and meet safety professionals in government and industry at the ESV conference in Yokohama, Japan.

IMPORTANT DATES:

- 5/20/22: Abstract Due
- 6/10/22: Abstract Acceptance Notification
- 11/7-9/22: Regional Design Evaluation
- 11/30/2022: International Finalists Notified
- 4/5/2023: Oral Presentation in Yokohama by International Finalists
- 4/6/2023: 1st place winner and runner-up recognition.

For more information go to: <http://www-esv.nhtsa.dot.gov/>